PUBLIC NOTICES

TO CLIENTS.

I beg to take this opportunity of advising you that the partnership between Mr. W. B. Daw and myself having been dissolved, I am carrying on the business of Daw's Steamship Agency at the old address of 17, Green Street, Leicester Square London, W. C. 2:

The booking of passages—especially theatrical—bagsage forwarding and foreign money exchange departments will be carried on as efficiently as existing conditions will permit. The American Newspaper service, of which I was the pioneer, is being further augmented, notwithstanding that it is aiready the most comprehensive in this country.

I trust to be favoured with your continued patronage and earnersty solicit recommendation to your friends. Yours faithfully.

IMPORTANT

Birth, Engagement, Marriage, Death and in Memoriam Netices may be telephoned to The Tribune any time up to midnight for insertion in the next day's paper. Just call Beekman 3000 and send the notice as you wish it isserted. Bill for same will be mailed to you later. The notice will reach over 100,000 readers daily.
